Heap on more wood! The wind is chill!
But let it whistle as it will
We'll keep our Christmas merry still.
Each age has deemed the newborn year
The fittest time for fostal cheer.
And well our Christian sires of old
Loved when the year its course had rolled
And brought blithe Christmas back again
With all his hospitable train.
Domestic and religious rite
Gave honor to the holy night.
On Christmas eve the bells were rung.
On Christmas eve the bells were rung.
On Christmas eve the halls erear.
That only night in all the year
Eaw the stoled priest the chalice rear.
The damsel donned her kirtle sheen.
The hall was dressed with holly green.
Forth to the wood did merry men go
To gather in the mistletoe.
Then opened wide the baron's hall
To vassal, tonant, serf and all.
Power laid his rod of rule aside.
And ceremony doffed his pride.
The bell, with roses in his shoes.
That flight might village partner choose;
The lord, underogating, share
The vulgar game of 'post and pair."
All halled, with uncontrolled delight
And general voice, the happy night
That to the cottage, as the crown,
Brought tidings of salvation down.
